

missioners, they may allow any further amount of said school fund to be appropriated, which the said board may require.

122. The agent of the school fund of said county, shall pay to the trustees of the several school districts, appointed by the board of primary education, the proportion of the school fund allotted to their respective districts, on presentation of the order of said board.

123. The trustees receiving the funds of the several districts, shall report annually to the said board the disposition of the same.

124. When any district board of trustees shall have organized, and shall report to the board of primary education their organization and the condition of their district, stating whether they have a convenient school house, whether a new one is necessary, or what repairs may be required, the said board may order to be paid to said trustees, for purchasing, building, renting or repairing any school house, such a sum of money out of the amount apportioned to that particular district, as in their judgment may be proper.

125. The said board shall also order to be paid to the trustees of the several districts, entitled as prescribed in section 120 of this article, for the use of the teachers therein, whose accounts shall be proven by the affidavit of the teacher, and signed by the trustees of the district, or a majority of them, a sum not exceeding eighty cents per month for each scholar he may have taught properly entitled to the benefit of the school fund, so far as the funds apportioned to that particular district will go, and no further.

126. If any one or more of said school districts be found so populous as to require more than one school house, or in case a school house or teacher cannot be procured for the accommodation of the pupils of the district or districts, and there should be at any time therein any academy or school house, the trustees of said district or districts shall have power to contract with the trustees of such academy, or the proprietors of such school, for the admission and instruction of such of the primary school pupils as the trustees shall think proper to contract for; or they may purchase, build or rent another school house for that district, which shall be under their control; but in no district shall
